GCSE RESULTS REACH HIGHEST EVER LEVELS

STUDENTS across Barking and Dagenham are celebrating after another year of record-breaking GCSE results.

The overall percentage for pupils achieving five or more A* - C grades (including English and maths) reached its highest ever level.

Inspectors said provisional results showed a five per cent increase for the third year running to 57 per cent - above last year's national average.

Barking Abbey, in Sandringham Road, Barking, saw 73 per cent of their pupils achieve five or more A* - C.

Eastbury Comprehensive, in Hulse Avenue, Barking, had a 13 per cent rise with 57 per cent of pupils achieving five A* - C and record numbers at Eastbury achieved more than eight A*/A grades.

One pupil, Amanda Jane Cheema, said: "I am speechless. My dream is now to become a doctor."

Headteacher at Eastbury, David Dickson, said he was 'extremely proud' of all the students.

"They are great team players and working together in partnership with staff, supportive parents and governors, they are becoming increasingly successful," he said.

"The vast majority of our students are now progressing into our high achieving sixth form."

Eastbrook School in Dagenham Road, Dagenham, saw figures rise for the fourth year running and this year saw a six per cent increase in the percentage of pupils achieving five or more A* - C.

Headteacher Valerie Dennis, said: "There is nothing as rewarding as seeing a student realise that they have achieved their target grades."

Fifty-nine per cent of pupils at Sydney Russell School, in Parsloes Avenue, Dagenham, achieved five or more A* - C grades.

Headteacher Roger Leighton said: "This is a superb set of results, which confirms Sydney Russell's position as one of the top four schools in the borough, with results significantly above the national average."

Councillor Rocky Gill, cabinet member for education and children, described the results as 'fantastic'.

"I am delighted for our students," he said. "We are improving year on year and all schools are moving forward. The results are a testament to the pupils' hard work and determination."

"I'd like to congratulate pupils and staff for their dedication. Also, I want to thank parents for their excellent support."

Romantic fiction

LEARN how to write word-perfect romantic fiction for free.

Competition

WIN! A pair of tickets to the Creative Crafts Show

YOUR favourite craft show is back at Sandown Park Exhibition Centre this month and the YA has 35 pairs of tickets to give away.

The event, which runs from September 16-18, includes lots of new things including free Papercraft taster sessions with Stephanie Weightman and a Knitting-Know-How area supported by RKM Wools, where you can exchange handy hints with local knitters.

You can also design and create machine embroidered seascapes with Wendy Dolan; enjoy Make and Take workshops for a range of crafts; Beading Bonanza workshops; and a free 'have a go' area with Craft Habitat.

Discover a simple method to produce embellishments, brooches and jewellery with Japanese Flower Kanzashi, and get creative with your digital images with Stone Creek Silk's Ruth Brown, and her new book, Digital Imagery on Fabric.

Experts and beginners alike can see, try and buy craft supplies, learn new techniques and enjoy workshops, presentations, master classes, exhibitors, on-stand displays and advice centres.

Admission to the show, which runs from 10am to 5pm on Friday and Saturday, and from 10am to 4pm on Sunday, costs £7.95 for adults and £6.95 for concessions, while children under 16 get in for free.

Groups buying six tickets can get one free, and there is free parking and a shuttle bus from Esher station, Surrey.

If you are not lucky enough to win, then make the most of our reader offer and save £1.50 on admission, get a half price catalogue voucher, a catering voucher, and free entry into a prize draw to win up to £300 worth of craft vouchers (redeemable at the show only).

Just quote the promotional code 'PR1' when booking by calling 01822 617744 or visit www.sccshows.co.uk

For your chance to win a pair of tickets to the show, simply answer the following question.

Company helps pair saddle up for charity

By Peter Henn

WHEN Russell Coe's postman told him he was going on a charity bike ride, he knew just what to do.

Now Mr Coe is giving Alan Hartshorn and his friend, Scott Eaton, two handmade racing bikes worth £1,500 for their trip, which runs from Land's End to John O'Groats and aims to raise money for Barnardo's.

Mr Coe, who runs the company Vandome, told the Yellow Advertiser that it seemed like the right thing to do.

He said: "They were doing a good thing, so it just made sense to make a couple of bikes for them."

The father-of-one operates his company from Field Way, Dagenham, and has been doing so for the last five years.

The 52-year-old said: "I used to be a mechanic, and I've been into cycling all my life, so this was something I had always wanted to do."

Mr Hartshorn, from Straight Road, Romford, was delighted with Mr Coe's generosity.

He said: "It was fantastic news for us. He is making the bikes especially for the trip, which is brilliant. "In hard times like these, it's not often someone does something for nothing." The journey will start on September 1 next year.

Pictures by Roy Tillet

Radio station keeps listeners talking

By Suzi Muston

THE phones are ringing off the hook at east London radio station, Nu-Sound. Hundreds of people are calling the station every day with requests, queries and to enjoy a bit of banter with the presenters.

The station, on 92FM, was started by husband and wife team, Taari and Sujita Sian, in 2007.

There are scores of interesting shows, including Early Hours, hosted by talented youngsters Chandi Tejura (7am-9am) and Roshan Thanki (9am-10am).

The hugely popular astrology show is hosted by Pandit Pathak from 10am until 11am.

Pandit was born into the highest caste in India and he and his ancestors were all taught the ancient language of Sanskrit and astrology.

Pandit said: "People ring up the show with their relationship dilemmas or money worries and I look at their birth charts, and also numerology readings and give them advice."

Sujita Sian takes listeners through the lunchtime session to be followed by husband, Taari.

Taari said: "The phonedlines are ringing off the hook. It's amazing. Wherever I go in east London, people are listening to Nu-Sound."

"You can guarantee if someone is working on a house in east London, they will have Nu-Sound radio on.

"All the workers at the Olympic site are listening to it, too, as they all keep ringing up."

"It's very flattering - we are so grateful we have come this far."

Nu-Sound radio is located at 450 Romford Road, London, E7 8US. Call 020 8472 9994.

Families flock to Dagenham park

FAMILIES spent a day in the sun at St Chad's Park, Dagenham, on Wednesday.

Parents and children enjoyed face painting, Punch and Judy shows, a bouncy castle, soft play areas, go-karts, music, arts and crafts from creative arts group, TARU.

The event was organised by Barking and Dagenham's Parks and Countryside Ranger Service, Children's Services and Youth League UK.

Christine Pryor, divisional director of targeted support, said: "The day was well organised and there were lots of activities on offer for families to enjoy.

"The activities were all free, which supports our commitment to helping local families during the tough economic climate."

FUN IN THE SUN:

TALENT: A selection of artists exhibiting at this year's E17 Art Trail.
Picture by Mark Burton

Follow the art trail

THREE weeks ago, riots and looting dominated newspaper and TV coverage.

This week, the Yellow Advertiser looks at the real story of community in East London: the launch of the E17 Art Trail – the biggest in Britain – that will attract tens of thousands of people this weekend.

More than 1,000 artists from Walthamstow and the surrounding areas have come together to stage the event.

Businesses, home owners and traders have given up gardens, streets, warehouses, office receptions, shops and work premises to exhibit artists' work for 10 days until September 11.

Laura Kerry has worked on the event for seven years.

"It just keeps growing," she said. "Our Art Trail is more reflective of people that live here than anything else that happens."

"We're working with schools, mosques, art groups, businesses and residents all over the borough."

"Everyone who visits will just get goose bumps. It's a wonderful opportunity to connect with the neighbourhood."

Plans for the next event in the Olympic year are already underway, but sponsors and volunteers are needed.

Trail co-founder Cris

Thompson said the 2012 event was a chance for local businesses to be a part of Olympic year.

He said: "We are not an official Olympic sponsor, but this is still a great chance for local people and companies to tap into the feeling of the Olympics and all the possibilities."

"There is a massive creative community here that was not here 10 years ago."

"We want local business to come on because our council funding runs out next year.
"We need to reach out to sponsors locally."

If you can help, e-mail
publicity@e17arttrail.co.uk

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1989.
2. "Classified" Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed "Trade Advertisers", and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as "trade", "dealer", "agent", "wholesaler", "IT" etc. in the advertisement.
4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
5. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
6. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republishing or allowances.
8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
- (1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
- (2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1968.
14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belongs to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.
- Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in "Trade" advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.
- Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.
- Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.
- Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.
- Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

Late winner hands Orient cup clash with Blackburn

Leyton Orient

By Rowland Lyons
at the Matchroom Stadium

LEYTON Orient booked their trip to Premiership Blackburn Rovers in the Carling Cup thanks to skipper Stephen Dawson's last-gasp winner against Bristol Rovers on Tuesday night.

Orient had led for nearly an hour, thanks to a David Mooney opener and Ben Chorley's spot-kick, but Rovers, inspired by former Orient favourite, Scott McGleish, staged a stirring second-half comeback.

Chris Zebroski reduced the arrears, before Rovers thought they had taken the game into extra-time when sub Elliot Richards levelled in the first minute of stoppage time.

Boss Russell Slade said: "It's mixed emotions really. We were desperate for the win. Clearly, it wasn't the style we wanted to do it. Albeit, I have to say the goals we scored were cracking goals – especially the winner – when Tehoue does so well and skipper has done well with a great finish."

"I honestly don't think we should have been in that position. We could have wrapped the game up with a second penalty shot had Charlie Daniels gone down in the first half and just after half time Mooney has had a great opportunity to make it 3-0.

"But, with the situation at the minute, if we had been 4-0 up and they had scored, even that would have given us an edgy period – and so that proved when Rovers scored – and that's inevitable on the back of five defeats."

Orient face a six-pointer at fellow strugglers Chesterfield this Saturday (kick-off 3pm) and the manager concluded: "It is nice to get a result and hopefully we can build on that.

"The game at Chesterfield will be a big test for both managers – we need to go there and get something and kick-start our season. I just hope tonight has given us that impetus to go on and get three points."

BURSTING THROUGH: Southend's Martin Freeman breaks through to scoring the first try.

Barking start season with a win

Rugby Union

A LAST minute conversion from Chris Ashwin gave Barking a thrilling 28-26 victory over Blaydon in National League One on Saturday.

The scores went into 11-11 at the break, with Barking's Will Nelson and Blaydon's Fraser Wilson scoring tries for each side.

Barking took the lead early in the second half with Adrian Duncan making for the corner, with Nelson kicking the extras for 18-11.

However, Blaydon pushed on and scored a penalty try with Andrew Baget converted.

Ashwin kicked Barking into the lead but Blaydon battled back as Robert Bell went over the line, with Gavin Painter putting the visitors ahead.

Barking were reduced to 14 men twice with Dan Smith and Tim Kavanagh sent to the sin-bin, but Barking somehow claimed victory, with Frankie Neale supplying James Ngan to go over the line, before Ash-win's kick sparked wild opening day celebrations.

Southend got their National Two South campaign off to a good start, beating Westcombe Park by 32-17. Six debutants were included for Southend and they fitted in well as the hosts ran in four tries.

Martin Freeman, Danny Cleare, Michael Guess and Perry Sanson went over the line, while Andrew Frost kicked two penalties and two conversions in a comfortable afternoon.

Non-League Football

THURROCK continue to prop up the table in Blue Square South after going down 4-1 at home to early pacesetters Welling United on Bank Holiday Monday.

Fleet took a 12th minute lead through Dean Cracknell, but a 40th minute penalty by Lee Clarke and a Joe Bruce own-goal two minutes later turned the fixture on its head.

Chelmsford City earned their second win of the campaign with a 3-1 away win at Eastbourne Borough.

Canvey Island are in fourth place in the Ryman League Premier following their 1-0 victory over East Thurrock United, while Billericay Town enjoyed a 4-4 thriller with Bury Town.

Aveley seemed control when Lee Perry and Sherwin Stanley put them ahead inside the first 20 minutes over Concord Rangers.

Rangers came back and although Stanley scored a 90th minute penalty, Daniel Subuola to make it 3-3 in the fourth minute of injury time. AFC Hornchurch suffered heartbreak, losing 2-1 at Lowestoft Town in the last kick of the game.

Grays Athletic came back from behind to beat Great Wakering Rovers 3-2 to go back to the top of Ryman League Division One North.

Waltham Forest moved up to third after their 1-0 'away' victory at landlords Ilford.

Tilbury dropped down to fifth following their 1-1 against Chatham Town. Heybridge Swifts beat Waltham Abbey 2-1. It was an exciting match at Enfield Town who beat Redbridge 5-3.

Romford fought back twice to earn a 2-2 draw at Thamesmead Town.

Brentwood took the spoils at Maldon & Tiptree, winning 2-1.

Dagenham & Redbridge

A LATE penalty from Rene Howe denied Dagenham & Redbridge the three points as they drew with Torquay United 1-1 in League Two on Saturday.

In a match of two halves, Daggers took the lead on 25 minutes through Sam Williams, but Howe's penalty on 79 minutes meant the spoils were shared.

Boss John Still said: "I have no complaints at all about the result because a draw was about right. The second half was a disappointment, but we'll get over it and move on."

Supreme Brentwood claim their third consecutive title

Shepherd Neame
Essex Cricket League

PREMIER DIVISION

BRENTWOOD claimed their third consecutive title thanks to their win over South Woodford on Saturday.

The match was reduced to 25 overs for both sides as rain played its part, with Brentwood scoring 193-7, Michael Pollard contributing with an unbeaten 86.

The rain meant South Woodford's overs were reduced to 20 with their target set at 155.

Tight bowling from the Brentwood bowlers, with Joe Buttleman taking 4-23, restricted South Woodford to 136-9 as they fell short by 19 runs.

Brentwood's nearest challengers, Wanstead went down by two wickets at Colchester & East Essex.

A stand of 161 between John Chambers and youngster Kishen Velani boosted Wanstead's innings when they came in at 56-2. Chambers went on to make 91, with Velani hitting an unbeaten 100 as Wanstead finished on 267-4.

Julian Russell (50) and Ben Foakes (74) posted a stand of 131 for Colchester's first wicket, and by the time they were out, Colchester only needed 100 to win. Despite Mohammed Fayyaz Khan taking four wickets, Colchester had enough to take the win.

Colchester are only two points behind Ilford in third who beat Chelmsford by five wickets.

Chelmsford, who are still not safe from relegation, were all out for 157 as Ilford's bowlers ripped through their order, Modassar Ibrahim taking 5-15 backed up by Theeban Tavarasa with 4-26.

It was plain sailing for Ilford with Sohail Idrees hitting 41 and Gurdeep Kandola unbeaten on 39.

The battle to stay up will go to the final day with five teams set for the showdown. The clash of the bottom two was abandoned due to the weather with bottom side Loughton hosting Woodford Wells.

With rain restricting overs, Loughton scored 130-9 in their 25 overs, thanks partly to Mohammed Hafeez's 56.

But rain ensured no further play with Wells sitting on 35-1 after 3.4 overs.

Hainault & Clayhall are outside the drop zone, but just four points above Wells losing at Ardleigh Green who gave their survival hopes a massive boost.

In a 24-over match, Ardleigh posted 209-6, with a knock of 95 by Smith.

It proved too much for Hainault who could only manage 127-6, with Anthony Hill taking 3-26 for Ardleigh.

DIVISION ONE

SHENFIELD have joined Buckhurst Hill in gaining promotion to the Premier League after their three wicket win at Hadleigh & Thundersley.

The hosts put up 210-8 in their 50 overs, with Jarryd Blake providing a knock of 55, while Matt Salisbury took 4-30. Rain reduced Shenfield's target for their innings to 183 off 36 overs, but consistent scores ensured great celebrations for the club, who also took League Cup honours with a victory over Upminster on Monday.

Upminster went into Monday's match with a convincing six wicket victory over already relegated Gidea Park & Romford.

The bottom side were all out for 43 in 17.4 overs in a 23-over match, but despite losing four wickets, Upminster had enough in hand to consolidate third place.

It's an immediate return to Division Two for Harold Wood, with their game at Orsett falling victim to the weather.

The matches between Chingford and Buckhurst Hill and Fives and Heronians and Hornchurch were abandoned.

DIVISION TWO

HARLOW have been promoted as champions after seeing off title challengers Southend on Sea & EMT by 63 runs.

Ahmed Khawaja's 93 helped Harlow to 261-5 in 50 overs, the game was reduced by rain with a target score of 126 set for Southend.

The change in conditions ensured low scoring for Southend, who could only manage 63-5, as Luke Monger took 3-24 for Harlow.

Lowly Hutton picked up a one run win at third place Wickford in a 20-over match. Hutton put up 124-8 in their innings, Wickford lost wickets at crucial times to fall just short, despite Robert Rollins' unbeaten 36 late on.

Old Southendian & Southchurch were victorious over Leigh on Sea in a rain affected clash, while the match between Horndon on the Hill and Stanford Le Hope was abandoned.

DIVISION THREE

BASILDON & Pitsea took a massive stride to Division Two after seeing off Billericay by 108 runs.

Openers Scott Noble (53) and Danny Gray (75) provided the backbone of their innings of 229-8 in their 50 overs.

Paul Walters' innings of 62 was the stand out in Billericay's but his fellow batsmen fell apart as they were 121 all out, Lee Lewis and Luke Daw taking three wickets apiece.

Basildon are a point ahead of Belhus after their match against Old Brentwood was abandoned. The latter sit in third, ten points behind Belhus.

West Essex's promotion took a massive hit, losing at bottom club Ongar who won their first match of the season.

Ongar put up 199-9 in their 50 overs, with rain reducing West Essex's target to 160 from 40 overs.

With one man short, West Essex were ten runs short of their target.

Benfleet rediscovered that winning feeling, beating Old Parkonians by 114 runs. The hosts completed their 50 overs, scoring 294-6 with Emmanuel Parmakellis's 107 and David Wright's 50 boosting their total.

Rain reduced Old Park's total to 277 in 42 overs, but they struggled, all out for 163 with Chris Coldicott taking 4-49.

The match between Woodford Green and Epping was abandoned.

WALTHAM FOREST COLLEGE DOUBLES HIGHER EDUCATION COURSES

The College is planning to double its offer of degree courses to meet the growing demand from students seeking an alternative to high cost university courses.

It is introducing new subjects to its range of HNC (Higher National Certificate) and HND (Higher National Diploma) courses as well as increasing the number of places available.

Principal Robin Jones, is expecting a huge demand as school leavers shun universities charging up to £9,000 a year for their degrees.

"The cost of our courses will be at least £4,000 a year less than what students might expect to pay at a university," he said.

"Studying here will also enable our students, especially those with family commitments, to stay in the community and save on student accommodation and travel."

The College currently offers HNC and HND course in Fashion, Textiles and Business.

From September, HNC courses in Health and Social Care, Advanced Practice in Work with Children and Families, and Hospitality Management, also offered as a HND, will be introduced.

Pervin Guneskan is one student who started on a BTEC course in Fashion at 16 and four years later graduated with a HND qualification.

She said: "For me the HND was a better option than going to university. Though I can work independently I felt I needed that extra support the College provided.

"It has given me the experience and the qualification I need to develop my career. I am planning to get some work experience first before setting up my own business."

For more information on HND and HNC courses please visit our website www.waltham.ac.uk, or call our Student Service Centre on 0208 501 8501.
